Alastair Swift becomes latest Liiba representative on LMG board

July 19th 2021: The London Market Group is pleased to announce that Alastair Swift, Head of Corporate Risk & Broking at GB Willis Towers Watson, has joined its board. Alastair will be one of the elected board members chosen to represent Liiba (the London and International Insurance Brokers' Association) on the LMG Board.

Matthew Moore, Chair of the London Market Group said: "Alastair Swift brings a decade of experience at Willis Towers Watson and will be able to give us valuable input from one of the largest organisations in the broker marketplace. He has also served as Deputy Chairman of Liiba for the past three years, and so has a clear understanding of what trade bodies such as ours can and should be doing on behalf of this industry. We are delighted that he has agreed to join the board."
